ments—to free us from hatred and fear, so that we may feed our hungry ones, mend our broken cities, and experience a richness of life which can come only in a world that is unarmed and fed.”

Peace Pilgrim has a third petition which she hopes to present to the President of the United States on her arrival in Washington. It reads:

“Peace Pilgrim’s Plea for a Peace Department.

“To the President of the United States and national leaders:

This is the way to peace—overcome evil with good, falsehood with truth and hatred with love.

We plead for the establishment of a Peace Department with a Secretary of Peace who accepts these principles, all conflict situations at home or abroad to be referred to this Peace Department.

If you agree with this, please use this as a petition and mail it to Peace Pilgrim, Cologne, N. J. She will present it to the President of the United States when she
