

September, 1973

Peace Pilgrim Now Finds Self On Popular Side

Pendleton, California

San Rafael, California

12 Independent-Journal, Friday, September 28, 1973

STILL ON THE ROAD

A familiar sight to many Marinites and a puzzler to others is "Peace Pilgrim" visiting Marin for the fifth time. For 20 years the energetic, silver-haired crusader for peace has journeyed by foot and taken shelter with friendly strangers, during six cross-country walkathons. She was motivated to begin her peace walks in which she claims to have clocked more than 25,000 miles, after finding that material possessions did not turn her on, but "plugging into the universe," did.